* The National Health Council is composed of the following representative organizations: American Child Health Association, American Heart Association, American Public Health Association, American Red Cross, American Social Hygiene Association, American Society for the Control of Cancer, Conference of State and Provincial Health Authorities of North America, National Committee for Mental Hygiene, National Organization for Public Health Nursing, National Tuberculosis Association, United States Children's Bureau, United States Public Health Service, American Association of Industrial Physicians and Surgeons, National Committee for the Prevention of Blindness, Women's Foundation for Health.

"It is astonishing to think that this large series of twenty health books edited by the National Health Council, composed of leading representatives of the health associations in the United States, in such an excellently readable form can be retailed at $6.00 for the entire series. Personally, we know of no better way of investing $6.00 than in the National Health Series—the sooner the better. The information obtained through the little volumes at that price is well worth six hundred times six dollars, and only general apathy and mental deficiency can prevent anybody from missing this wonderful opportunity given us by the National Health Council."—Medical Recorder, Chicago, Ill.

PARKER, JOSEPH, D.D.

†The People's Bible. This twenty-eight volume library, by one of the greatest preachers and theologians the world has ever known, is both guide and interpreter to the treasures of the entire Bible. It throws a clear light on the beauty and significance that are so frequently hidden behind the ambiguities of the text. It is so arranged as to meet the wants of the ordinary Bible reader as well as the requirements of students and ministers. In the ordinary sense it is not a Bible Commentary. Its scope is broader and less technical. It is essentially a guide to Biblical wisdom. As a distinctly pastoral exhibition it furnishes a careful and thorough analysis and application of the spiritual meaning of the scriptures. It is a work as valuable for the home circle as for the library or study. Exhaustive special indexes in each volume and a complete Index volume make the contents easily accessible. Each volume complete in itself. In 28 vols. 8vo, Cloth. $1.75 per vol.

†The Pulpit Bible. The entire text of the Bible is printed in large, clear type, with bright and suggestive illustrations in an ample margin opposite each significant verse. The author's notes alone run to over 750,000 words. The notes are all original and they indicate the special pulpit use of each verse (where available) in the Bible. Each note is thus a suggestion for a sermon. Where space has not permitted a sufficient treatment of any passage, a copious and most carefully detailed index indicates in which of Dr. Parker's other books the particular interpretation is provided. 4to, Full Morocco, 1,351 pp., one vol. $20.00.

†Studies in Texts. Six volumes containing new sermons, outlines, suggestions, etc., designed to be of value to preachers, Bible students, teachers, and other active religious workers, and useful for home and family readings. 6 vols., 12mo, Cloth. $1.75 per vol.

PETITMANGIN, PROF. H., and FITZGERALD, JOHN A., A.B. (With the collaboration of Ernest Dimnet, author of "French Grammar Made Clear," etc.)

Latin Grammar Made Clear. An outstanding grammar for school work—one that is complete enough without being crowded, one that gives an unmistakable impression of clarity by its logical arrangement, and one that is genuinely interesting. Professor Petitmangin is an exceptional scholar and his knowledge of the minutiæ of the Latin language will at once be evident to experts. It is fortunate that he could secure the collaboration of both John A. Fitzgerald and Ernest Dimnet, for with their aid the English version seems assured of the same high position in America that the French original has enjoyed in France and elsewhere for fifteen years. The exercises will be found to be of valuable service in helping and practically compelling the student to think, not memorize, and to acquire familiarity with the spirit of the Latin language by vital imitation. 12mo, Cloth, 333 pp. $1.50.

"We recommend the grammar, and consider it superior for practical purposes to the grammars commonly in use in our schools and academies."—The Messenger of the Sacred Heart.

POST, EMILY

Etiquette: In Society, In Business, In Politics, and at Home. ("The Blue Book of Social Usage." New and enlarged edition, published in October, 1927. In addition to the book's present contents, there are many entirely new subjects in this new 18th edition, for instance: "The Woman in Business," "American Neighborhood Customs," "When You Are a House-Guest," "Etiquette in Washington," etc. The author's position in American society, her achievements as a novelist and essayist, and her wide acquaintance with social and diplomatic circles of the European capitals, enable her to write on the subject of etiquette with ease and accuracy. There are scores of books on etiquette which are the product of practised writers who have no inside knowledge of their subject or of writers not so facile who set down the most obvious ordinances of social intercourse in a manner dull, trivial, and not infrequently erroneous. Here we have authority, literary skill, and something that no book of etiquette now before the public contains, namely, the welding of the form and spirit of social life in so ingenious a fashion that we not only learn the rules of social intercourse in society, business, politics, and at home, but we actually live them out in the reading of the book. Crown 8vo. Cloth. Many new illustrations. $4.00. Full Leather, $7.50.

"It covers with an almost incredible minuteness of detail every contingency into which a social being may be plunged."—New York Evening Post.

"Not since Mrs. Sherwood sponsored her book on etiquette some fifty years ago has anyone so obviously well equipped appeared as authority on the subject."—New York Tribune.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS

IT BRINGS TO THE PREACHER'S ATTENTION hundreds of texts heretofore almost wholly passed over by the pulpit. Spurgeon, in his Commenting and Commentaries, says: "We have next to nothing on Kings." In the Homiletic Commentary we have on Kings alone 743 treatments of texts. The same is true of other books, as Jeremiah. New expositions, critical notes, illustrations, etc., are poured in upon neglected texts, and additional light thrown upon old texts.

IT IS THE ONLY COMMENTARY that supplies a sermonic treatment of homiletic suggestion on every verse of both the Old and New Testaments that can be used to advantage as a sermon text.

IT CONCENTRATES THE LIGHT of all ages and of all countries on the text.

IT IS WHOLLY FREE FROM DENOMINATIONAL BIAS, being strictly evangelical.

IT SUGGESTS THOUSANDS OF THEMES AND ILLUSTRATIONS for sermons, also many hundreds of useful illustrations.

IT THROWS NEW LIGHT upon the present controversies over the Old Testament.

THE COMMENTARY IS WHOLLY IN ENGLISH, avoiding Hebrew and Greek, except here and there in the critical notes.

THE INDEXES are useful and practical.

ROSENTHAL, DR. RICHARD S.

The Rosenthal Linguistry System in French, German, Spanish, and Italian. This system has met with world-wide success because it is the natural method of learning a language. It commences by associating words with ideas. By this means the student wastes no time with unnecessary rules of grammar and syntax, but begins to use the language itself at once by saying things that mean something and will be of practical use to him. Every minute devoted to this system results in usable knowledge. The distinguishing feature of this method is the proper selection of a vocabulary that can be employed to advantage in every-day life. This common-sense system of learning foreign tongues in the easiest and most natural way is supplied in four languages, French, German, Italian and Spanish. 12mo. Price for any one language, $6.00.

"This is, without doubt, the simplest, quickest, and most practical method in existence."—The New York Times.

"The method is wonderfully simple and ingenious."—The Star, Washington, D. C.

"The Rosenthal Method makes study a pleasure and no task, enabling one to make practical use of everything learned."—The Herald, Boston.

The Language Phone Method

The one best means for learning a language successfully. The Rosenthal Linguistry volumes, in conjunction with a phonograph and the recently created

Language Phone New Process records—which insure the most perfect reproduction of the human voice yet developed—the student is enabled to hear in the clear, cultured voice of a native professor the right pronunciation of every word as he learns its meaning. This gives him a speaking as well as a reading knowledge of the language from the very first lesson, something that can be obtained by no other system of home instruction. Terms and descriptive literature will be sent on application. (See page insert of detachable post cards facing inside back cover.)

"If there is such a thing as a royal road to language study that road is certainly the Rosenthal Language Phone Method. I have examined dozens of textbooks, as well as all of the phonograph methods of linguistry study, but the Rosenthal is the peer of them all. I have always thought that I possessed a complete literary knowledge of French but I have learned more practical French after devoting three weeks to the Rosenthal method than I learned in four years of college and three years of French study. The enunciation is perfect, and one simply absorbs the verbs, usually the 'bete noire' of language study. For training eye, ear, tongue, memory, the Rosenthal Language Phone Method is unsurpassed, and I cordially recommend it to those who are studying languages by themselves or in class."—Paul R. Martin, Washington, D. C.

SALEEBY, C. W., M.D., F.R.S., Edin.

†The Progress of Eugenics. In 1909 Dr. Saleeby, under the title of "Parenthood and Race Culture," told the story of the Eugenic movement up to that date. He now reviews its progress; deals many a blow at the open opponents of eugenics; and protests vigorously against those who seek to identify the science with theories which he regards brutal in spirit, immoral in principle, and impossible in practise. Crown 8vo, Cloth. $1.50.

"Discussion of the three primary divisions of the subject—Positive Eugenics, or the encouragement of worthy parenthood; Negative Eugenics, or the discouragement of unworthy parenthood; and Preventive Eugenics, or a study of racial poisons—constitutes a study of this subject which should be read by every parent and public-spirited person in the country, to say nothing of its relation to the whole religious and social problem."—Christian Standard, Cincinnati.

In this Index, vocabulary titles are printed in Small Capitals; and all entries are intended to register passages where actual information is given upon the topic suggested. It is notably a working Index, which the student will appreciate for its frequent convenience and its great practical value. Price of the 13 volumes in Buckram, $72; in Half Morocco, $102; in Full Morocco, $128.

"It contains the best and latest information, put together in a catholic spirit, free from rash theorizing and immature conclusions."—Prof. A. H. Sayce, D.D., LL.D., Oxford University.

"Its extent, variety, and accuracy of information are notable. Its digest of facts and its tabular statistics make it indispensable for reference."—M. Woolsey Stryker, D.D., LL.D., Pres. Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y.

"In its original form this work has been familiar to students for many years. In this edition the original articles have been reconstructed and brought up to date by distinguished American theologians, under the able editorship of Dr. Jackson. Two features are specially worthy of note: The insertion of hundreds of biographies of men of the present generation on the same pages as those of ancient and Scripture history, and the remarkable and extensive bibliography attached to the articles. The latter is probably the most useful feature of the present edition, and could hardly be excelled."—Rev. F. B. Meyer.

"Throughout the entire work there is manifested a spirit of fairness and broad-minded charity towards all. Where a subject admits of discussion, both sides, or all sides, are usually represented by their best available advocate, and this same spirit is evidenced in all articles of a sectarian character."—Herald, Rochester, N. Y.

"It is universal in its scope, embracing all religions, all sects, all creeds, and all variations of religious thought and philosophy, and it covers every phase of ecclesiastical and theologiccal discussions."—Record, Los Angeles, Cal.

SCHODDE, PROF. GEORGE H. (See Commentary on the New Testament—Weiss.)

SCHOFIELD, ALFRED T., M.D., M.R.C.S.

†Nerves in Disorder. This work aims to dispel ignorance regarding all functional nervous diseases and to set forth scientific principles for successfully treating these troubles, not only by physicians, but also by the sufferers themselves. Present-day life tends to constantly work the brain harder and the body less. This tendency is resulting in an increase of nerve disorders, in a growing menace to bodily health and strength. Dr. Schofield shows how to find out the causes of this wear and tear of the nerves. He cites many cases of sufferers. He explains many cases of remarkable cures. In regulating the economy of health, in attaining the even balance between body and mind vigor, in avoiding, checking, or curing all forms of nervous troubles this work will be found invaluable. 12mo, Cloth, 218 pp. $1.50.

"Dr. Schofield tells in understandable language what functional nervous diseases really are, and the reading of this book will do much to relieve the needless sufferings of nervous people which are due to a lack of understanding of the disease."—Boston Transcript.

SCHOFIELD, ALFRED T., M.D.—Cont'd.

†The Home Life in Order. This book deals with subjects of pressing and every-day interest to us all. Dr. Schofield writes not alone of the household and its hygiene, but of the human body as to its organization, functions, and needs in the matter of care. The author is a prominent physician and lecturer of London. 12mo, Cloth, 345 pp. $2.00.

"Dr. Schofield is a good example of the highest type of modern physician, broad-minded, scientific, clear-headed, and equipped with an enormous fund of information bearing upon the subjects of which he writes."—Good Health, New York.

"Dr. Schofield has a very clear way of putting facts and theories that are generally credited with a sort of inherent obtuseness."—The Springfield Republican.

†The Force of Mind; or, The Mental Factor in Medicine. The action of the mind in the cause and cure of many disorders is considered from new and scientific standpoints in this work, with suggestions for the practical use of this knowledge by physicians and laymen. The author shows that the mental factor is the one out of many ever present in some form in all diseases and how this information can be used by physicians and patients. This volume is endorsed and used as a text-book by the founders and practitioners of the Emmanuel Movement. 12mo, Cloth, 325 pp. $2.00.

"The sanest attempt we have seen to deal with the mental factor in disease. It is a book that every physician ought to read. It will help him to understand why the personal factor counts so much toward the physician's success or failure."—The Medical Standard.

All that concerns the training of the young and the perfecting of our own lives in every-day professional or business life is treated by the author. 8vo, Cloth, 259 pp., topical index and list of books on the subject. $2.00.

"All the subtle and occult as well as educational and outside agencies that tell upon the developing character are exhaustively considered."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

†The Unconscious Mind. Fourth Edition. Its object is to establish the fact of an unconscious mind in man, and to trace in brief some of its powers and the various ways in which they are exhibited. The work seeks to show that this mind is the seat of character and of conscience and spirit-life, and a most important factor in psychical and physical life. The subjects of habit, memory, muscular action, therapeutics, education, sensation, disease, character, sex, etc., are discussed in their relation to the unconscious mind. 8vo, Cloth, 453 pp. With diagram. $3.00.

"It is one of the best works that has been our privilege to examine on the application of the principles and results of the New Psychology. . . . The work has a therapeutic as well as psychological value. It is a work that every college professor and every public-school teacher, as well as every physician and minister, will enjoy."—Baptist Commonwealth, Philadelphia.

SCHUYLER, WILLIAM

Under Pontius Pilate. New Edition. 12mo, Cloth, 352 pp. $1.50.

"The book has the merit of making the events in the life of Christ seem like actual history and as being connected with the great Roman Empire in an intimate way. We can never fully understand Christianity until we give Palestine and its events in Christ's day an exact historical perspective."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

SERMON BIBLE, THE

A sermon library, containing 4,800 sermon outlines with more than 24,000 homiletical references and embracing the whole of the Sacred Scriptures. It gives the essence of the very best homiletic literature of the present generation, and it is a source of inexhaustible help to the preacher, student, or other Christian worker.

The supreme value of The Sermon Bible lies in its fertility of suggestiveness. Many a preacher or speaker grows weary at times of "seeking for suggestive hints." He wanders over acres of miscellaneous writing and can hunt up nothing pertinent. The process is an exhausting preliminary to the making of a discourse. It will be entirely obviated by judicious resort to the volumes of The Sermon Bible. Upon thousands of text-topics the desired aid will be instantly discovered, and the mind will be set going in the right direction, with an initial impetus toward original thought.

In 12 volumes. 12mo, Cloth. $2.00 per volume; $24.00 per set.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS

The plan of the work, in general, gives under each text, each being in its consecutive order from Genesis to Revelation: (1) Outline of important sermons by eminent preachers which exist only in manuscript or periodicals, and are thus inaccessible; or, (2) less full outlines of sermons which have appeared in volumes that are not well known or easily obtained; or, (3) reference to or very brief outlines of sermons which appear in popular volumes such as are likely to be in a preacher's library; and (4) full references to theological treatises, commentaries, etc., where any help is given to the elucidation of the text. Thus the preacher, having chosen his text, has only to refer to the Sermon Bible to find some of the best outlines and suggestions on it and very helpful references to all the aids available.

SHEPPARD, NATHAN

Before an Audience. Or, The Use of the Will in Public Speaking. This is not a book on elocution, but treats, in a new and original way, public speaking. 12mo, Cloth, 152 pp. 75 cents.

"Gives suggestions that will enable one to reach and move and influence men."—The Pittsburgh Chronicle.

"It is level-headed and spirited. Full of pith and point."—New York Independent.

SHIRLEY, THE HON. RALPH

A Short Life of Abraham Lincoln. The arrangement of peace with the Central Powers has called up so many allusions to Lincoln's handling of the Southern States at the close of the Civil War that this concise and authoritative account of the part he played in preserving the Union and suppressing slavery meets a considerable popular demand. 12mo, Cloth, Illustrated. $1.25.

". . . The bulk of Lincolniana is marred by a tendency to make a god of our great war president; and out of our intense admiration for the man, we have insisted that the bare facts, far from belittling him, tend rather to show more clearly than does panegyric what a moral giant he was. It appears that Ralph Shirley also holds some such view as is here expressed; for there is not a touch of the usual delirious praise in the compact yet comprehensive volume before us. Throughout this story of Lincoln's life is almost bald in its simple factuality; yet we have never read anything on Lincoln that left a more distinct impression of greatness than does Mr. Shirley's work. . . . The book ought to be valuable for supplementary reading in schools."—Journal, Minneapolis.

SHRINER, CHARLES A.

Wit, Wisdom, and Foibles of the Great. Together with Numerous Anecdotes Illustrative of the Character of People and Their Rulers. A fascinating collection of stories that introduce the great men and women of history in a most intimate way. The personal lives of these people, whose public acts form such an important part of history, have been hitherto largely sealed books. But their contents are now revealed in surprizing and interesting form in this authoritative work. Royal Octavo, 696 pp. $5.00.

"A book that is a whole library in itself of the most fascinating reading is 'Wit, Wisdom and Foibles of the Great.' For the person who finds pleasure in reading there can be no more fascinating book, and, of course, it is a gold mine for quotations and witty and humorous stories for public speakers and writers."—San Francisco Call.

"That's mighty nice. I much appreciate the volume."—Theodore Roosevelt.

"So much of the entertaining and the useful can rarely be found bound together as in this book."—New York World.

"A treasure-house of events, incidents, and anecdotes of distinguished people, which a busy man often wants but has not the time to search for. It is a monument of industry, and of judgment and discrimination in selection, which writers and speakers will find most useful."—Hon. Chauncey M. Depew.

"A veritable treasury of interesting pictures of the men we desire to know."—Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus.

"A most entertaining, informing, and useful book. It is filled with apt illustrations of a wide range of subjects of human interest and many most dramatic incidents."—Augustus Thomas, Famous Dramatist.

SMART, ISABELLE THOMPSON, M.D.

The Mysteries of Life. Four volumes that tell plainly and purely the story of sex that is so often difficult for parents to explain and that develop in children a wholesome contempt of impurity. These volumes will counteract the sordid ideas of sex which children many times receive from vague unwholesome whisperings from sources outside your home and will enable you to win their confidence and impart to them the mysteries of life in a clear, understandable way. Warmly recommended by Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of the Juvenile Court of Denver, Colo.; Edwark Bok, of the Ladies' Home Journal; Rev. C. H. Parkhurst, New York; Rev. Francis E. Clark, President United Society for Christian Endeavor; Charles W. Eliot, ex-President of Harvard, and many other prominent authorities.

BOOK I. What a Mother Should Tell Her Little Girl.

BOOK II. What a Mother Should Tell Her Daughter.

BOOK III. What a Father Should Tell His Little Boy.

BOOK IV. What a Father Should Tell His Son.

Small 12mo, Cloth. 75 cents each. $3.00 per set, boxed.

"I have long contended that it was important to teach parents how to advise their own children concerning the mysteries of life, and the set of books—'What A Father Should Tell His Son,'—'What A Mother Should Tell Her Daughter,'—etc., seem to me to be especially well prepared to this end. The four volumes are well prepared and deserve a wide circulation, especially among parents. I hope these books will meet with the reception they deserve."—Judge Ben B. Lindsay of the Juvenile Court of Denver, Col.

"I have now had an opportunity to read the four little books by Dr. Isabelle Thompson Smart, and they seem to me to cover the ground in a very direct way, and yet with that self-restraint that I feel should be characteristic of books on this general subject. I hope they may have a wide sale."—Edward Bok, Editor of The Ladies Home Journal.

SMITH, F. BERKELEY

Parisians Out of Doors. It is said of the French that they live out of doors, and Mr. Smith in this book gives a true picture of this real life of the Parisian. 12mo, Cloth, water-color frontispiece by F. Hopkinson Smith, and numerous drawings and photographs by the author. $1.50.

In London Town. The hotels, the music halls and those who frequent them, the gay procession on the Strand, and in fact all the phases that go to make up every-day (and night) life in the great British maelstrom are flashed before the reader's eyes in a captivating fashion. Cloth, profusely illustrated with sketches and photos. $1.50.

"It is brilliantly written. The glimpses of London are not at all like anything we are accustomed to in descriptions of London."—Brooklyn Eagle.

SMITH, GOLDWIN, D.C.L., LL.D.

The Moral Crusader: William Lloyd Garrison. A biographical essay, founded on "The Story of Garrison's Life, Told by His Children." With Portrait. 12mo, Cloth, 200 pp. $1.00.

SMITH, ISABEL COTTON

The Blue Book of Cookery and Manual of House Management. (Introduction by Emily Post.) This is not "just another cook-book," but an original and authoritative guide for the preparation of foods and for house management. All the originality and importance of this volume would be of limited value unless it were written by so capable and practical an authority as Isabel Cotton Smith. It contains more than 2000 recipes; gives complete information on the management of house and home, with invaluable suggestions for table economy, and includes everything for every season and every day in the year, for every possible repast from breakfast to late supper and from teas and picnic meals to specially designed menus for children at home and at school, as well as menus for vegetarians. Crown 8vo, Washable Fabrikoid, 665 pp., $2.50. Dark blue full flexible Morrocco leather binding, round edges, gold-edged paper, $5.00.

"The Blue Book of Cookery appeals to me as encouraging to the art of American cooking. It contains the most distinguished array of delicate and dainty recipes for the home that I have seen here."—Joseph Boggia, Chef de Cusine, Hotel Plaza, New York.

"I went over all the recipes and I find them so attractive and wonderful. I extend to the authoress my admiration for her accomplishment."—L. Paquet, Chef de Cuisine, Hotel McAlpin, New York.

"I have never seen an American cook-book as comprehensive as The Blue Book of Cookery. Every recipe is so good, so easy to make, that even an amateur cook could not make a mistake. The illustrations, the table service, and the fancy dishes are as excellent as the menus."—Frederick Guillot, Chef de Cusine, Hotel Astor, New York.

"It is the most complete and interesting book of its kind. Every menu and explanation of recipes is so nicely and plainly presented. I gladly recommend the book."—Roger Cretaux, Chef de Cuisine, Hotel Roosevelt, New York City.

"It seems to me a very good book for the housewife and contains many excellent sugestions."—Eugene Thomann, Chef de Cuisine, Waldorf-Astoria, New York City.

"It is not too much to say that, as sermons, they stand alone, combining with their pure evangelical doctrine a directness, a simplicity, a transparency, and an effectiveness of style unequaled by any other published sermons by men now in the pulpit or by those of other generations."—The Standard, Chicago.

1,271 Pages
Most of the Chapters were entirely rewritten
the remainder thoroughly revised and brought up to date

The Garage Owner, Repair Shop Owner, Service Station Man, Automobile Mechanic, Car Dealer, Car Salesman, Student—each one will find DYKE'S AUTOMOBILE AND GASOLINE ENGINE ENCYCLOPEDIA invaluable.

This new FIFTEENTH EDITION embodies some additions that make it much better than ever. Most noticeable perhaps are several colored charts. There are four large, colored trouble-shooting charts, covering the complete ignition system, the fuel-feed and carburetion system, the generator and its circuits, the starting motor and its circuits. The troubles are classified into mechanical and electrical troubles.

THIS ENCYCLOPEDIA TELLS HOW

to become an expert automobile repairman, both mechanical and electrical. It illustrates and describes everything that is to be known about testing, adjusting, and repairing engines, carburetors, clutches, rear axles, differentials, ignition, generators, starting motors, batteries—complete to the most minute details.

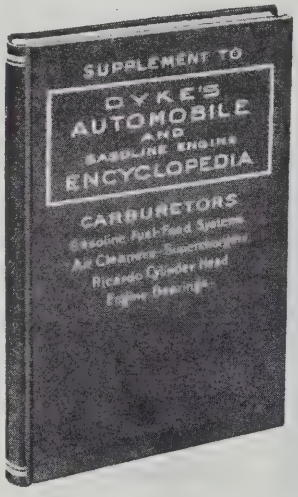
At Last

CARBURETOR INFORMATION

EVERY AUTO MECHANIC NEEDS



As a supplement to the well known Dyke's Automobile Encyclopedia, Mr. A. L. Dyke, America's foremost automobile authority, has written this book treating Carburetors, Gasoline Fuel-Feed Systems, Air Cleaners, Superchargers, Ricardo Cylinder Head and Engine Bearings. He deals with principles of construction and operation, adjustments, servicing and maintenance.

It is just the information that the automobile servicing business has been sorely in need of. The first chapter deals with Carburetor Types. The following makes of carburetors are then dealt with in order: Stromberg Plain Tube, Schebler, Stewart, Pierce Arrow, Carter, Marvel, Ball & Ball, Tillotson, Cadillac, Lincoln, Ford, Johnson, Zenith, Packard. This is followed by the chapters on Gasoline Fuel-Feed Systems, etc.

There isn't another book like this on the market. You need it—you can't get along without it, if you expect to do Auto work to amount to anything. It cuts out all guesswork—enables you to do each carburetor job 100% right.

This book is not a duplicate of the carburetor section in Dyke's big Auto Book—but is a special book on carburetors and treating more extensively on the subject. Even though you have the Encyclopedia, you will want Dyke's "Carburetors" too—then you'll be ready for any auto job that may come along!

BAILEY'S HANDBOOK

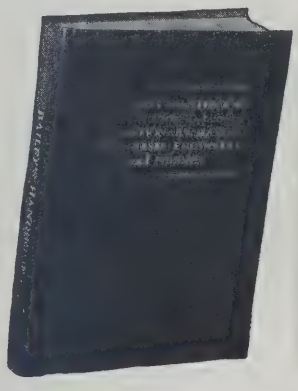
OF

UNIVERSAL QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS for STATIONARY, MARINE AND DIESEL ENGINEERS AND FIREMEN

By A. R. BAILEY

Formerly Boiler Inspector in Massachusetts, Ohio, Michigan, and Pennsylvania. Training Officer, Rehabilitation Division, Federal Board for Vocational Education. District No. 13.

This Handbook contains the latest information on the subjects of boilers, pumps, fuel consumption, valves, heating systems, engines, etc., yet available. It will prepare those who master it to pass the examination for any grade of license in any state of the union, or in Canada.



The questions and answers are those that have been universally asked by examining boards and are compiled from over four hundred examination papers, including tests for firemen, engineers, and boiler inspectors. Some were selected from the author's own experience with twenty-six examinations, and some have grown out of his practical experience as engineer and boiler inspector in the states of Massachusetts, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Michigan, and as safety engineer for the Lincoln Motor Co., Detroit. For many years he conducted schools for training steam engineers at Detroit, Cleveland, and Seattle. Also, he holds eight first-class, unlimited engineering certificates, and for two years was engaged to instruct in stationary steam engineering those disabled soldiers being trained by the Federal Board for Vocational Education for operating steam plants.

Mr. Bailey is intimately acquainted with the needs of practical engineers and firemen and of candidates for licenses. The plan used is one that omits unnecessary explanations and formulas and is eminently adapted to all who wish to learn in the shortest time possible all that is essential to the installation, operation, and upkeep of steam plants.

In addition to being of great value to stationary steam engineers and firemen, this Handbook will prove to be invaluable to marine engineers in that 50 per cent of the questions contained in it, as well as the sections on the slide valve engines, apply to the operation of marine plants.

The book will assist the practical engineer or fireman no less than the candidates for a license. Study the Handbook during your leisure, or keep the Handbook in your pocket for reference, and build up in your mind a body of information, not only strengthening your hold on your present position but preparing yourself for a higher grade of license and a more responsible position. Out of your particular plant you can make a laboratory by using the Handbook in the study of problems in their application to your specific boiler or engine. If you are working on a Corliss engine or a Stirling boiler, you have a splendid opportunity to master all questions that concern the effective operation and upkeep of such equipment. This will also benefit you when you apply for examination for a higher grade of license, since nine times out of ten the examiner will ask searching questions on the nature of the plant in which you were last employed.

Price $2.00 postpaid; 264 pages; size 4¾×6½. Flexible cover.

The Publishers invite the careful attention of all interested in the dissemination of good literature to the contents of this catalogue, as it is the most important offering ever made of good books at modest prices.

GROSSET & DUNLAP, Publishers
1140 BROADWAY (at 26th Street) NEW YORK

FOREWORD

IN this catalogue you will find listed not only the best works of fiction, but a splendid assortment of clean, wholesome books for boys and girls, and delightful series of children's books of decided educational value, entertainingly written.

In building the home library nothing could be better than the Grosset & Dunlap books, for they enable the reader to purchase two books for the price of one. And moderate prices do not mean that these books have been compelled to suffer either as to workmanship, durability or attractiveness, for they will be found in every way desirable volumes to add to the library.

Wherever books are sold, Grosset & Dunlap publications may be obtained; but where bookshops are not available, any books will be sent on receipt of price by the publishers.

Keep this catalogue where it will be easy to refer to it.

GROSSET & DUNLAP, Publishers
1140 Broadway (at 26th Street)
NEW YORK

THE aim of the publishers in compiling this INDEX OF GOOD FICTION has been to furnish the book-lover and the book-buyer with a list of nearly all of the fiction successes of recent years, now available at popular prices. Popular Copyrights are re-issues of books that have been on the market in the higher-priced editions for a period of about two years. They are not books upon which the copyright has expired. The same copyright protects both the original edition and the Popular Copyright. These books are printed from the same plates as the original editions. All are complete and unabridged and are reissued by a special arrangement between the author, the original publishers and Grosset & Dunlap to be sold at a popular price.

Frankly, Have You Ever Known Such VALUE as Grosset & Dunlap Offer in NOVELS of DISTINCTION?

SINCE the launching earlier in the year of the new Grosset & Dunlap publishing venture, NOVELS OF DISTINCTION, to retail at the popular price of $1.00, there have been many comments from the trade—uniformly favorable and cordial and enthusiastic—upon the handsome dress, the discretion shown in the selection of titles, the decided need for such a line in the American book market, but, above all, the remarkable value which these beautiful books present to the public at the dollar price.

It will be the jealous aim of the publishers to see that this high standard of format, content and value will be maintained in all forthcoming titles included in the fast growing list of NOVELS OF DISTINCTION.

THE NEW WORLD LOOSE LEAF ATLAS

This atlas contains the largest and finest collection of maps made in America, and has the added advantage of remaining perpetually down to date through a periodical Correction Sheet Service, whereby new, full size maps are printed and sent subscribers for insertion in their atlases whenever geographical changes occur. This periodical revision is possible only because all of the maps are fastened in a loose leaf binder, which may be easily opened when new maps are to be inserted. It is, therefore,

THE ONLY ATLAS THAT NEVER GROWS OLD

The 390 maps in the atlas vary in size but most of them are 11 x 18 inches. The pages are uniformly 13½x19½ inches and have four holes punched along the inner edge, to fit over the posts of the binder. The removable front cover holds the sheets firmly in place and is itself fastened to the back covers by screws at top and bottom. When new sheets are to be inserted, these screws are easily loosened by twisting them with a silver coin.

THE NECESSITY FOR SUCH AN ATLAS

is best illustrated by the rapidity with which important changes have occurred in the past. Every year since the NEW WORLD LOOSE LEAF ATLAS was first published, changes have affected from 64 to 128 of its pages, and Correction Sheets have accordingly been mailed subscribers for insertion in their books. Every subscriber to the NEW WORLD LOOSE LEAF ATLAS receives free the first two semi-annual installments of Correction Sheets issued after the purchase of the atlas. Thereafter, the Correction Sheet Service is continued for a nominal yearly subscription fee.

THE SUPERB EXAMPLES OF CARTOGRAPHY

in this atlas embrace the whole world, correctly and exhaustively. Each map represents the highest skill in modern engraving and is unsurpassed for beauty of execution. The geographical information it contains has been obtained from the most authentic and dependable sources in the world. The maps are printed in from four to fourteen colors. Briefly the collection may be itemized as follows:

58 PHYSICAL AND ECONOMIC MAPS
184 POLITICAL MAPS OF FOREIGN COUNTRIES
78 HISTORICAL MAPS
70 DETAILED MAPS OF THE UNITED STATES

The index of each map appears on the pages immediately preceding and following the map, so that a place may be located quickly by means of the index references. The indexes include every county, or other minor sub-division, city, town, village, and hamlet with latest population figures.

The loose leaf binder is covered with handsome, red crash and stamped in gold and blue.

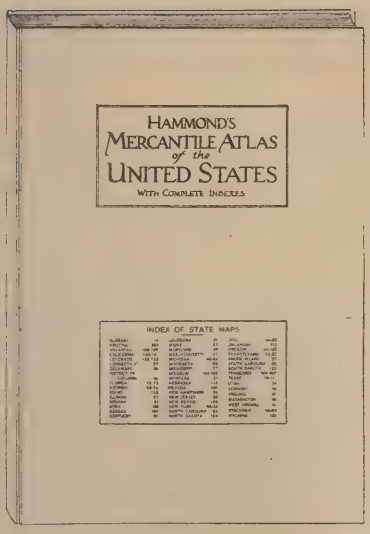
HAMMOND'S MERCANTILE ATLAS OF THE UNITED STATES



This large, new atlas has been produced from an entirely new set of plates containing the latest information collected from Government, State, and private sources. It is especially designed for the business executive, manufacturer, shipper, and sales manager.

THE MAPS

show in one or more plates for each state, all cities, towns, villages, post-offices, railroad stations, counties, rivers, railroads, and interurban electric lines. Because of the great importance of transportation this new series of maps indicates the railroad routes by special red plates bearing numbers designating the different railroads.

The indexes give the latest population statistics for counties and incorporated places, and locate every city, town, village, post-office and railroad station.

THE POSTAL AND SHIPPING GUIDES

The Postal Guide gives under one alphabetical arrangement by states every post-office in the United States, followed by the name of the county. The parcel-post unit number of each post-office is given. In connection with this Postal Guide, a detailed parcel-post map with transparent zone plate centered on the user's post-office and fastened securely enables the user to determine immediately the zone and the amount of postage required to carry any parcel-post package to any post-office in the United States or its overseas territories. No other single compilation applicable to any one of the 60,000 mailing points gives this information in such comprehensive form.

The Shipping Guide is indispensable for quick reference to railroad and express information. It names in alphabetical order all railways in operation and the express company or companies operating over same.

SPECIAL MAPS

in this atlas include such useful subjects as the Standard Time Divisions, Inland Waterways, Airmail Routes, and Distance Tables, our Overseas Territories, a new series of Highway Maps showing distances on intra- and interstate routes, and naming the principal routes, an invaluable series for use in locating Motor Bus and Freight Hauling Lines.

BINDING

The 212 pages in the MERCANTILE ATLAS are bound in serviceable dark blue canvas crash with gold stampings. The size of the book is 14 x 20 inches.

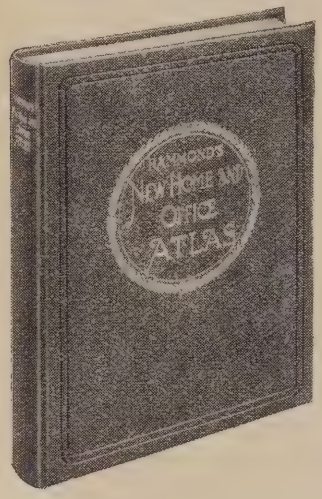
Among them are 99 pages devoted to the countries of the World, the Canadian provinces, and the states of the United States as they are today. The maps are most complete in detail including all railroads and practically all cities and towns. Many of the maps occupy two or more pages.



SPECIAL MAPS

History is graphically told on the historical maps in the Home and Office Atlas. This series enables one to trace the whole course of events from ancient times to the present day. By examining the maps depicting political boundaries at various periods of the world's history, it is possible to read a fascinating romance of the rise and fall of empires, of conquest, exploration, colonization, commerce. There are 32 pages of these historical maps.

Sixteen pages are devoted to physical and economic maps of the World, the Continents, and the United States, printed in colors to show economic, physical, climatic, vegetation, and population features.

THE ILLUSTRATED GAZETTEER

This thirty-two page section of the atlas describes the countries of the World and is profusely illustrated by halftone reproductions of some of the World's rarest and fairest views. The gazetteer starts with Afghanistan and proceeds alphabetically, telling, in concise but comprehensive paragraphs, of the physical characteristics, principal mining and agricultural products, communications, and government of each country.

THE INDEXES

These include a very complete index of foreign cities arranged alphabetically for the whole world, an index of cities of the United States having 100 or more inhabitants, and an index of Canadian cities. The latest population figures are used in all these compilations. There is also a two-page Gazetteer-Index of the countries, states, and colonies of the World, giving area, population, and capital.

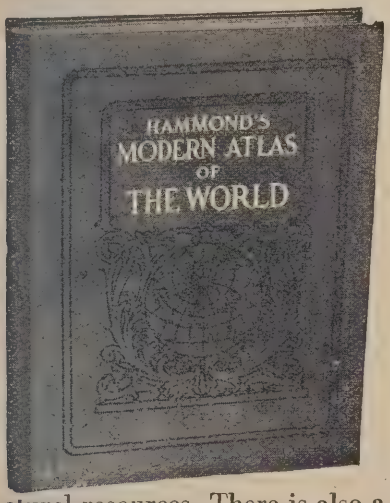
HAMMOND'S MODERN ATLAS OF THE WORLD

THE RECOGNIZED STANDARD FOR TWENTY YEARS

The new and enlarged edition of this fine atlas contains 180 pages of colored maps and complete indexes. Every map plate has been thoroughly revised to date or entirely re-engraved, so that the atlas shows THE WORLD AS IT IS TODAY.

The book includes separate maps of every foreign country, every state of the United States and every province of Canada. They show all counties (or minor sub-divisions), railroads, cities and towns, and include the latest changes in names and boundaries.



In addition to the 100 pages of down to date political maps, the Modern Atlas contains 16 pages devoted to PHYSICAL and ECONOMIC MAPS of the World, the grand divisions, and the United States. This new feature is of unusual value, because it presents graphically much information that cannot be obtained elsewhere. These maps, printed in 6 to 14 colors, show at a glance physical features, annual range of temperature, industrial, agricultural, non-productive regions, and natural resources. There is also a Parcel Post Map of the United States, accompanied by guide giving rates and principal post offices with unit numbers.

A very COMPREHENSIVE INDEX OF CITIES AND TOWNS is included in this splendid atlas. This compilation, alphabetically arranged for the whole world, contains the latest population figures for each place, the index references and the plate where it will be found. The advantage of having one A. to Z. index is apparent, for a town may be found instantly, even though the country in which it is located is not known.

Other indexes give the latest population figures and index references for all incorporated cities, towns, and villages in the United States and Canada. Another helpful compilation is a GAZETTEER-INDEX of the World. This is an alphabetical list of grand divisions, countries, states, colonial possessions, etc. with area, population, capital, and index references of each.

Size of book when closed, 10 x 12½ inches, 180 Pages of Maps and Index.

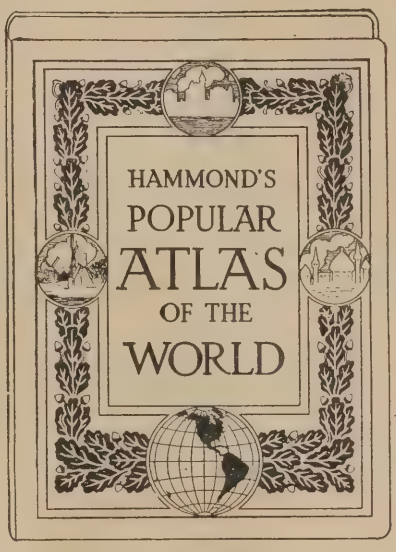
HAMMOND'S POPULAR ATLAS OF THE WORLD

336 PAGES OF GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION



This fine collection of over 100 maps includes maps of each state, territory and insular possession of the United States, of each province of Canada, of each country of Europe including Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Finland, Poland and other new nations, and general maps of all other portions of the globe. These are beautifully printed in color, are down to date and are complete in detail.

In these days of rapid development of little known lands, of tremendous progress in foreign trade, and of wide interest in geographical questions it is important to know something of the commerce, communications and industries of the different countries and states, in addition to their geographic location.

This atlas has been published to fill this need, for it contains a DESCRIPTIVE GAZETTEER OF THE WORLD. This is an entirely new compilation describing the physical features, natural resources, government, commerce, industries, communications, etc. of each country. The information is down to date including such recent developments as the recent partitioning and new government of Ireland, the Soviet government of Russia and descriptions of all the new countries of Europe, Asia and Africa.

The Popular Atlas also contains a GAZETTEER OF THE UNITED STATES AND NON-CONTIGUOUS TERRITORIES, covering exhaustively the physical features, forests, agriculture, minerals, manufactures, government and history of each state. Small maps accompany the text showing the natural resources, the chief mineral deposits, the navigable rivers, canals, highest land, and chief cities and towns of each state. These maps form a wonderfully useful supplement to the more detailed commercial maps in the body of the atlas.

The new INDEX OF CITIES AND TOWNS lists in alphabetical order practically every place mentioned on the maps and gives the new population figures of each place according to the official enumerations. This index locates the places on the maps, giving page numbers and index references.

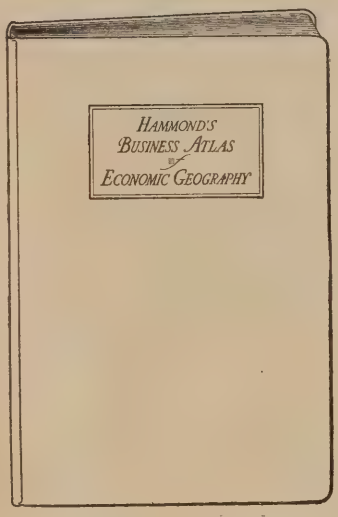
NEW MAP COLLECTION

AN ENTIRELY NEW PRODUCTION

HAMMOND'S

Business Atlas of Economic Geography



THE maps in this new work do not confine themselves to political features, but embrace many sides of physical, commercial and economic geography, and present in a concise and graphic way information not readily secured elsewhere. Nothing is of greater importance to the student of geography than the connection between such phenomena as climate, temperature, rainfall, vegetation, and relief of the land.

PHYSICAL MAPS show the elevation of the land and the depths of the ocean by different gradations of tint, while isothermal lines for January and July connect places having the same average temperature. The effects of elevation and proximity to water upon temperature are apparent.

CLIMATIC MAPS show the summer and winter rainfall, atmospheric pressure and the prevailing winds.

ECONOMIC MAPS locate the industrial districts, the productive and the non-productive areas. The agricultural and mineral products are indicated by initials and symbols.

VEGETATION MAPS show in different colors the prevailing types of natural vegetation-forests, grasslands, deserts, tundra, etc.

POPULATION MAPS show the density of population by colors and the more important towns by blue dots.

POLITICAL MAPS show the boundaries and railroads. ¶ Additional and unusual features are language maps, racial maps and oil and gas maps. ¶ Bound in flexible leatherette. Size, 9½ x 6½ inches. 96 pages. Price, $2.00.

COMPARISON OF SIZES

(8, 12 and 18-inch sizes)

Though not usually known, the superficial area of an 18-inch globe is almost twelve times that of an 8-inch globe and more than three times that of a 12-inch globe. On account of the clearness of the engraving which is correspondingly larger, we strongly recommend the 18-inch globe for general purposes.

THE MERCHANT SHIPPER'S GLOBE

FOR THE OFFICE AND LIBRARY

THIS globe embraces many new and novel features heretofore not embodied in a similar work. The map is entirely new and gives all the latest boundaries throughout the world, including the new boundaries in Europe, the Mandatories in Africa and the Pacific, etc. These boundaries are shown in a distinct tint, thus eliminating the heavy colors so objectionable on a high class globe. The ball, 18 inches in diameter and surrounded by a hand-cut brass meridian, is mounted in a beautiful polished solid mahogany stand. In the center of the stand, below the ball, is an accurate compass 8½ inches in diameter and covered by a glass plate. The horizon circle surrounding the globe is in colors and shows all the divisions with greatest precision. On the top of the ball is a brass hour circle which enables the user to tell the exact time of any place in the world. Ocean distances between ports are given in nautical miles and distances between principal cities are given in statute miles. Cities, towns, railroads and rivers are also shown. LIBRARY TABLE GLOBE

A LOW STAND GLOBE OF HANDSOME APPEARANCE

To those who are satisfied only with the best in library and office furniture, yet lack the floor space for a high stand globe, this handsome new product will have an irresistible appeal. It may be placed on the desk or library table and, because of its low stand, may be examined by one while seated in a chair. It is probably the only globe of its size that may be satisfactorily examined in this way.

Every part used in its construction is of a superior quality. The imported map and horizon circle printed in ten beautiful colors, the wrought brass meridian, hour disc and other fittings, and the American walnut stand with soft, oil finish, altogether present a rich, pleasing appearance.

The globe ball is 12 inches in diameter; its map is down-to-date, showing all the latest changes in international boundaries, etc. In order that the surface may be washed, high grade varnish has been applied, which adds a permanent and attractive luster to the bright colors of the map.

The solid walnut stand, a superb example of the cabinetmaker's art, occupies a space only 17½ inches square; its height is 16 inches.

WIRE STAND GLOBES

These popular globes are frequently used in classroom work, each pupil having one on which to follow the demonstrations by the instructor on one of our larger globes. For children commencing the study of geography, these wire stand globes will be found as serviceable as a larger globe.

Since the eight inch size is very nearly as detailed as those on the heavier stands, it is often found satisfactory for office and home use. Many of the features included in our larger globes appear in smaller scale on both sizes of the wire stand globes.

Mounted on very substantial wire bases, these globes present a very good appearance. The maps show all the principal countries and cities, including the latest geographical changes. The surfaces are varnished. Each globe is packed in a separate carton.

HAMMOND'S
IMPROVED PLANISPHERE

Size, 16 x 16 inches

This apparatus shows for every hour of the year, the principal stars that are visible at that time. It is substantially made of heavy board and is attractively printed in colors, with the heavens in a pale blue. On the front is a circular opening, representing the horizon. A series of other openings form a semi-circle about the horizon opening, and along the sides of these smaller openings are printed at even intervals the hours of the day from 4 P.M. to 8 A.M.

Beneath these openings is a movable disc bearing a map of the sky and a circular calendar of the days and months of the year. By revolving this disc until the day of the month is adjacent to the hour on the front, a star map for that particular hour appears in the circular opening. If the northern point of the planisphere is then held in that direction, it is possible to identify easily all the more important stars and constellations, for the planisphere is in effect a mirror of the sky containing the names of constellations and the stars of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd magnitudes.

On the sky map, the constellations are printed in blue and are connected by broken blue lines. Stars of the first magnitude are shown and named in red; those of the second and third magnitude in black. The Ecliptic is shown by broken red lines.

On the back of the planisphere is printed a list of the stars with their right ascension and declination. This list forms in reality an index for locating the different stars, and is a valuable feature to be found on very few other planispheres.

The planisphere is enclosed in an attractive box 16 inches square, and ½ inch deep.

MAP ACCESSORIES

Exact Size

This little device is of value when exact distances on the map are required. If, for example, the exact mileage from one point to another along a river, railroad, or highway is to be ascertained, the map measurer alone will furnish the information. A straight ruler cannot be used because of the winding nature of the route; but by running the map measurer over the route on the map, the information is quickly obtained. To measure a line, the instrument is set at zero, and the wheel is run over the map (the instrument being held perpendicularly) following closely the line or distance to be measured. The index hands on the dial will then indicate the length of the line in feet, inches, and eighth inches.

No. 1694 A. Watch pattern, nickel plated, 1½ inches in diameter.

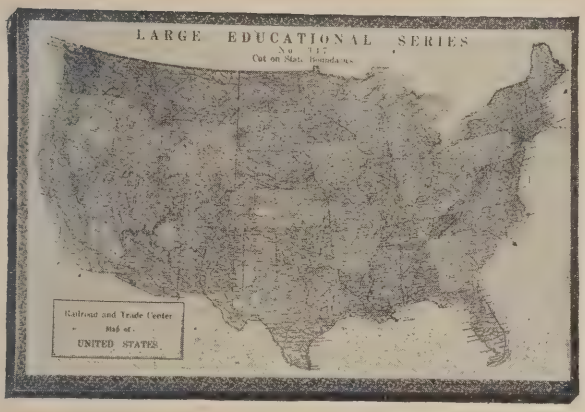
HAMMOND'S MAP PUZZLES



These are jig-saw puzzles of maps that are dissected on county or state lines. Accurate maps printed in bright colors are carefully mounted on a special composition board. They are then sawed into many intricate pieces, most of them representing the size and shape of the sub-divisions.

Assembling these pieces into complete maps is both entertaining and instructive as it encourages the study of geography.

With the exceptions of Puzzles Nos. 247 and 256, each box has as a label the same map used for the puzzle within. Puzzles Nos. 247 and 256 are enclosed in a box bearing a beautiful cover design in four colors. The puzzle pieces are protected from loss by a seal of glassine paper entirely covering the open box.

THE POPULAR GEOGRAPHICAL GAME

AMERICAN CITY LOTTO

Here is a game that is more than a mere pastime for children; more than an idle means of amusement. American City Lotto possesses all the elements of a good game, arousing interest, excitement and friendly competition, but in addition it teaches the players many helpful facts of geography. The leading cities and their locations, the state capitals, state flowers and nicknames are examples of the knowledge acquired while playing. Furthermore, it entertains adults as well as children. It is easy to learn and so fascinating to play that youngsters and grown-ups become intensely interested in the game.

American City Lotto consists of twelve playing cards, each bearing the names of five cities in four states and 240 small cover tickets, each containing one of these city names and with one, two or three stars added in the cases of state capitals and largest cities. The players hold one or more cards before them and the cover tickets are placed face down on the tables. One at a time these are picked up and read aloud by one player, who gives the ticket to the player having that city on his card. It is then placed at the proper place on the playing card, and the round terminates when one player gets a complete state covered. Each player is credited with a point for each star he has exposed and the winner gets five extra points. Another round then commences; this continues until one player makes 49 points which ends the game.

The playing cards are heavy yellow board, 9 x 5½ inches, printed in green and brown; the cover tickets are red and blue 8-ply cardboard. Enclosed in box 10x6x1½ inches with title printed over map of the United States in four colors.

PERILS OF THE GALE

This enticing title appears on an exceptionally handsome box, 12x18x1 inches in size, which, when opened, discloses a beautiful playing board and eight small metal ships. The board represents an ocean divided into many square spaces. Four players strive to move their vessels to the harbors on the opposite side of the ocean, the movements being governed, not by dice or by finger spinner, but by an ingenious device known as "The Gale" which revolves when the players in turn blow upon it. "The Gale" whirls about above a compass and when it stops, the player may move one of his two vessels, one, two or three spaces in the direction indicated.

The game is very fascinating to play and appeals to young and old.

FIRESIDE BASEBALL

Just as "Ping Pong" is an indoor variation of Lawn Tennis, so is "Fireside Baseball" a small size duplicate of the real game, for here is a game where the pitcher really pitches the ball, where the batsman really bats the ball and sends it out to left field for a three base hit. The Fireside Baseball Game is won by the most skillful player; luck is of secondary importance.

The game is enclosed in a box 30 x 15 inches, representing a regular baseball field. Around the sides are divisions marked, "Base Hit" "Out", etc., and at the Home Plate is a bat, 3 inches long, swinging on a tension spring. When the pitcher rolls the marble over the plate, the batter releases the bat and makes a hit or is put out according to the division in the outfield when the marble lands.

The game is substantially made of wood and cardboard with the field lithographed in four bright colors.

It is not overloaded with detail or marred by the excessive use of color but portrays in most legible form, the information about "high spots," railroad lines, etc. needed by every executive and sales manager. When mounted on compo-board with edges bound and rings attached as is shown in the above illustration, it becomes at once a wall map, a miniature "map tack system" and a handy desk map as well.

Cities and towns are shown in black, the size of type indicating the relative importance of places, so that the larger commercial places in any state or province may be readily selected.

PHILIP'S COMMERCIAL MAPS

These new maps are the largest ones that have been published and show many details that cannot be included on those of smaller dimensions. For instance, mail steamship routes are distinguished from other steamship routes, while all distances between ports are given. Coaling stations, oiling stations, and wireless stations are located. Railroads are emphasized and, on some of the maps, are shown in different colors to indicate the gauges. The maps are correct as regards new international boundaries, new countries, railroad developments, etc.

NEW AUTHENTIC SERIES POCKET MAPS

A reliable collection of POCKET MAPS of the Countries and principal Geographic Divisions of the earth is always in demand, and because of their up-to-dateness, general accuracy, and moderate price the Authentic Series of Pocket Maps of the World have enjoyed a popularity exceeded by no other line.

These maps, covering on a large scale every important portion of the civilized globe, are based on the most recent surveys and other reliable data, while the greatest care and precision have been exercised in their engraving and printing. Four distinguishing features mark their preparation:

1. MINUTE DETAIL. Probably no other maps contain this essential feature in such a degree of completeness. The political divisions of countries, states, principalities, provinces, and other subdivisions are shown; all railways are accurately and distinctly delineated; and the principal means of transportation and communication, including roads and submarine telegraph lines, are given.

2. ABSOLUTE CLEARNESS. By means of careful preparation and the use of distinct lettering throughout, all confusion and illegibility have been avoided, so that any desired information can be obtained without the slightest difficulty.

3. LARGE SCALE. The large scale of these maps materially increases their legibility and wealth of information, and especially appeals to tourists and travelers, as well as all others who require full and accurate delineation.

4. DISTINCT COLORING. The boundaries of all political divisions are indicated by light tints, which give the maps a strikingly beautiful appearance, without obliterating any of the place names.

The compactness of these maps in their light blue cases adds to their general attractiveness and utility.

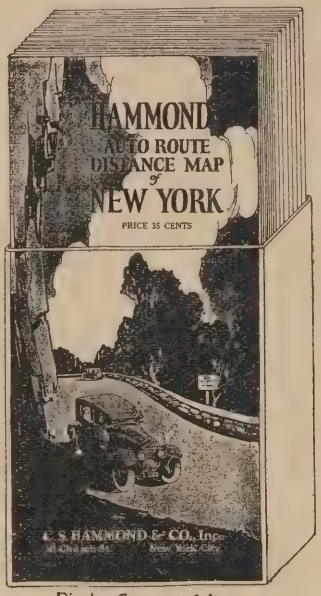
HAMMOND'S AUTO ROUTE DISTANCE MAPS



Display Case containing 12 Maps

These maps have been especially prepared for the motorist: only information that is essential and valuable to him has been included, thereby making these new road maps the most useful series he can secure.

The two route questions most frequently asked by motorists are "Which Way?" and "How Far?"—and these are the questions which these new maps answer fully. The through auto routes, that is, the long distance highways most frequented by tourists, and the shorter auto routes alone are shown, together with the towns along the roads. The distances between these towns are indicated in small figures, while the total distances between the larger cities and route junctions are designated in large red figures.

On maps of those states which have adopted a highway numbering system, the routes are numbered to correspond with the numbers on the poles or posts along the roads. Remarkable legibility has been obtained by the elimination of all non-essential detail. Lakes, rivers and the boundaries of the states are shown in blue, while the route information is in red and gray.

The maps are printed on durable map paper, and folded in attractive pocket covers.

MAP MOUNTING

The demands for this class of work have been steadily increasing and have necessitated enlarging our facilities until we now have the largest and best equipped Map Mounting Department in the country. Here we delicately mount the torn fragments of some rare map or parchment for some collector and execute quantity orders for the trade and for large corporations. Our workmanship is invariably of a superior quality; satisfaction is guaranteed.

STYLES OF MOUNTING

PLAIN BACKING. The map is mounted upon muslin that has been dampened and stretched across an oak frame. When removed from frame and trimmed neatly, the reinforced map lies flat. Rates: three square feet or less, 75c; larger maps 25c per square foot.

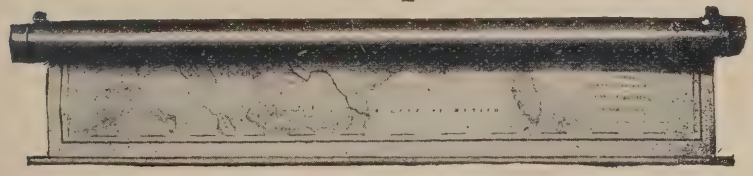
FULL MOUNTING. The map is backed on muslin as above, then wooden rollers are fastened by strong brads to the top and bottom of the map. Rings are attached to the top roller so that the map may be suspended. Rates: three square feet or less, $1.25; larger maps 40c per square foot.

STEEL CASE MOUNTING. The map is backed on muslin with wooden roller at the bottom and an extension of one to three feet of white paper mounted across the top. To this extension is attached a spring roller (similar to a window shade roller) which is then inserted in the steel map case described below. Rates may be readily calculated by adding the price of the case as given below to the cost of full mounting as stated above.

DISSECTING ON CLOTH. The map is first cut into sections of equal size, which are then mounted on cloth with blank spaces between the different sections, so that the finished map folds readily and compactly. Rates: three square feet or less, $1.20; larger maps 40c per square foot.

COMPO-BOARD MOUNTING. Maps are frequently mounted on compo-board, which is a preparation of wood and cardboard. It is then possible to insert map tacks for special designations as described on pages devoted to Map Routing System and Map Tacks. After mounting the map on the compo-board its edges are bound with tape and eyelets are punched for suspension purposes. Rates: three square feet or less, $1.50 larger maps 50c per square foot, except that maps longer than 10 feet or wider than 4 feet require a frame and hence the charge is 60c per square foot.

Steel Map Case



The Steel Map Case has more points in its favor than any other design for containing individual maps. It is made of heavy sheet steel, in a single piece, with edges turned over, japanned in dark green. When map is rolled up, the moulding on bottom fits snugly into slot, thereby making it dust-proof. Because of its construction, it is exceedingly strong, and so light that a child can easily carry the largest sizes, and, also takes up less room than any other unit. By removing cap at right end, adjustments may be made without the use of any tools. Being made of metal, it is not affected by moisture, or other climatic conditions. These unit cases may be hung one above the other, without interfering with the operation of any one.

MISCELLANEOUS MAPS

In the following compilation are included brief descriptions of many (but not all) of the maps in our vast stock—the largest assortment of geographical publications to be found in any establishment in the World. In order to include as many maps as possible, only the character, size, scale, and price of each one are given, but a more detailed description of any item will be promptly furnished by telephone or letter, upon request

EXPLANATION OF ABBREVIATIONS

The descriptions are grouped under nine general headings, namely: Series of Maps, The World, Africa, Asia, Europe, North America, United States, Oceania and South America, in the order named. Under these headings are compiled the descriptions, first, of maps of these divisions, and then, alphabetically arranged, those of the countries and states in them. Individual maps, issued as part of a series, of uniform size and nature, are described only under the heading "Series of Maps," but cross-reference by number to this series is given below the names of the individual countries or states. For example, we have 14 different maps of Kentucky; four are given special descriptions under that heading, followed by reference numbers to ten series, in each of which a map of Kentucky is published and sold separately.

CHARACTER OF MAP

For the sake of brevity and simplicity, the maps have been assigned descriptive terms, according to the features they emphasize or the manner in which they show them. Some of these descriptive terms are defined below. It should be explained, however, that these descriptions apply only to this compilation and are intended merely to differentiate between the various maps of the same area.

A General Map shows the political sub-divisions, the routes of railroads, simple topographical features, cities and towns.

A Railroad Map is one on which the railroads are named, and, on some, are printed in individual colors.

A Road Map shows the automobile routes and is of especial value to the motorist.

An Orographical Map is one on which the different elevations are shown in different tints.

A Topographic Map is one on which the elevations are indicated by contour lines.

An Outline Map is printed in black only and generally shows no detail except country, state or minor division boundaries.

A Base Map is printed generally in black but contains some detail, more or less complete.

A Geological Map shows the geologic formations and strata by different colors.

An Economic Map locates the principal mining operations, designating the mineral produced and also indicates the chief agricultural products of the different regions.

Other terms will be self-explanatory.

SIZE OF MAP

The figures immediately following the character of the map represent its dimensions in inches, the first figure being the measurement from top to bottom and the second figure, the measurement from left to right.

MAP TACKS

THERE is almost no limit to the possibilities for using these tacks on maps and diagrams to indicate special details. There is nothing more graphic or interesting than statistics represented by these indicators of attractive and well contrasted colors, which catch and hold the eye. They have been used in municipal budget and health exhibits to show, for instance, the proximity of houses and factories, the prevalence of certain diseases, and the comparison of present and proposed transit facilities. In business enterprises they may be used to indicate the routes of traveling salesmen, the territories allotted to agents, sections controlled by competitors, etc.

MISTAKES

To avoid mistakes in ordering, customers should always

1. Give full and exact titles.

   When ordering from a series, state explicitly which numbers in the series are desired.

   We cannot hold ourselves responsible for your neglect to specify when editions with answers or vocabularies are wanted.

3. State which binding is desired — paper, boards, or cloth.

   Books not otherwise described in this list are bound in cloth.

4. When books ordered are for introduction, this fact should be stated, with the name of the school or college into which they are to be introduced.

SHIPPING DIRECTIONS

Shipping directions should be given with great care, and it should be distinctly stated whether books are to be sent by mail, express, or freight. If by express or freight, state by what line.

REMITTANCES

Remittances should be made by post-office orders, express orders, or checks on New York, Boston, or Chicago.

That goods sent as ordered are not returnable, except by previous agreement.

World wickedness and deluge. GENESIS 7.

5 ¶ And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

6 And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee: and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

7] CHAPTER 7.

The general deluge.

AND the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

2 Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶ And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

Christ's sermon ST. MATTHEW, 5. in the mount.

24 And his fame went throughout all Sȳr'i-ȧ: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Gāl'i-lee, and from Dĕ-cāp'ō-lis, and from Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, and from Jū-dæ'ȧ, and from beyond Jŏr'dȧn.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Beginning of the sermon in the mount. 14 The light of the world. 21 What it is to kill. 38 Exhortation to suffer wrong. 44 Love our enemies. 48 Labour to be perfect.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Phăr'i-sees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

Generations of Terah. GENESIS. 12. God calleth Abram.

17 And Ē′bĕr lived after he begat Pē′leg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.
18 And Pē′leg lived thirty years, and begat Rē′u:
19 And Pē′leg lived after he begat Rē′u two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.
20 And Rē′u lived two and thirty years, and begat Sē′rug:
21 And Rē′u lived after he begat Sē′rug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.
22 And Sē′rug lived thirty years, and begat Nā′hôr:
23 And Sē′rug lived after he begat Nā′hôr two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.
24 And Nā′hôr lived nine and twenty years, and begat Tē′rah:
25 And Nā′hôr lived after he begat Tē′rah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.
26 And Tē′rah lived seventy years, and begat Ā′brăm, Nā′hôr, and Hā′ran.
27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Tē′rah: Tē′rah begat Ā′brăm, Nā′hôr, and Hā′ran; and Hā′ran begat Lōt.
28 And Hā′ran died before his father Tē′rah in the land of his nativity, in Ûr of the Chăl′dees.
29 And Ā′brăm and Nā′hôr took them wives: the name of Ā′brăm's wife was Sā′rāi; and the name of Nā′hôr's wife, Mĭl′cah, the daughter of Hā′ran, the father of Mĭl′cah, and the father of Ĭs′cah.
30 But Sā′rāi was barren; she had no child.
31 And Tē′rah took Ā′brăm his son, and Lōt the son of Hā′ran his son's son, and Sā′rāi his daughter in law, his son Ā′brăm's wife; and they went forth with them from Ûr of the Chăl′dees, to go into the land of Cā′năan; and they came unto Hā′ran, and dwelt there.
32 And the days of Tē′rah were two hundred and five years: and Tē′rah died in Hā′ran.

CHAPTER 12.

1 God calleth Abram, and blesseth him with a promise of Christ: 4 he departs from Haran. 6 Canaan promised.

NOW the LORD had said unto Ā′brăm, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:
2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:
3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.
4 So Ā′brăm departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lōt went with him: and Ā′brăm was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Hā′ran.
5 And Ā′brăm took Sā′rāi his wife, and Lōt his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Hā′ran; and they went forth to go into the land of Cā′năan; and into the land of Cā′năan they came.
6 ¶ And Ā′brăm passed through the land unto the place of Sī′chem, unto the plain of Mō′reh. And the Cā′năan-īte was then in the land.
7 And the LORD appeared unto Ā′brăm, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.
8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Bĕth′-el, and pitched his tent, having Bĕth′-el on the west, and Hā′ī on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.
9 And Ā′brăm journeyed, going on still toward the south.
10 ¶ And there was a famine in the land: and Ā′brăm went down into Ē′gўpt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.
11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Ē′gўpt, that he said unto Sā′rāi his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:
12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Ē-gўp′tians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.
13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

RUTH 1. Elimelech departeth into Moab.

9 For the people were numbered, and, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jā'besh-gĭl'ĕ-ăd there.
10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jā'besh-gĭl'ĕ-ăd with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.
11 And this is the thing that ye shall do, Ye shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that hath lain by man.
12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jā'besh-gĭl'ĕ-ăd four hundred young virgins, that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the camp to Shī'lōh, which is in the land of Cā'năan.
13 And the whole congregation sent some to speak to the children of Bĕn'ja-min that were in the rock Rĭm'mŏn, and to call peaceably unto them.
14 And Bĕn'ja-min came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jā'besh-gĭl'ĕ-ăd: and yet so they sufficed them not.
15 And the people repented them for Bĕn'ja-min, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of ĭs'ra-el.
16 ¶ Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Bĕn'ja-min?
17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Bĕn'ja-min, that a tribe be not destroyed out of ĭs'ra-el.
18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the children of ĭs'ra-el have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Bĕn'ja-min.
19 Then they said, Behold, there is a feast of the LORD in Shī'lōh yearly in a place which is on the north side of Bĕth'-el, on the east side of the highway that goeth up from Bĕth'-el to Shē'chem, and on the south of Lĕ-bō'nah.
20 Therefore they commanded the children of Bĕn'ja-min, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards;
21 And see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shī'lōh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shī'lōh, and go to the land of Bĕn'ja-min.
22 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, Be favourable unto them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that ye should be guilty.
23 And the children of Bĕn'ja-min did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them.
24 And the children of ĭs'ra-el departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.
25 In those days there was no king in ĭs'ra-el: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

THE

BOOK OF RUTH.

233 CHAPTER 1.

1 Elimelech, driven by famine into Moab, dieth there. 6 Naomi returning home, Ruth accompanieth her.

NOW it came to pass in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bĕth'-lĕ-hĕm-jū'dah went to sojourn in the country of Mō'ab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.
2 And the name of the man was Ē-lĭm'ĕ-lech, and the name of his wife Nâ-ō'mĭ, and the name of his two sons Măh'lon and Chĭl'ĭ-on, ĕph'răth-ītes of Bĕth'-lĕ-hĕm-jū'dah. And they came into the country of Mō'ab, and continued there.

may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple.

5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.

7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

8 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek.

9 Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me up.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

12 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

13 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

14 Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD.

PSALM 28.

1 A prayer against enemies. 6 God is blessed. 9 Prayer for the people.

A Psalm of David.

UNTO thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

3 Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.

4 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert

5 Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

6 Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him.

8 The LORD is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his anointed.

9 Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

PSALM 29.

David exhorts princes to give glory to God.

A Psalm of David.

GIVE unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

2 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon many waters.

4 The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

5 The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars; yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.

7 The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness; the LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

9 The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests: and in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.

10 The LORD sitteth upon the flood; yea, the LORD sitteth King for ever.

11 The LORD will give strength unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace.

PSALM 30.

David praises God for his deliverance.

A Psalm and Song at the dedication of the house of David.

I WILL extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JAMES.

1147 CHAPTER 1.

JAMES, a servant of God and of the Lord Jē'sus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations.

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea, driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2. 1148

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 He blesseth God for spiritual blessings, 7 and for redemption by his grace.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ĕph'ē-sŭs, [a] and to the faithful in Christ Jē'sus:

2 [b] Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

3 [c] Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly [1] places in Chrīst:

4 According as [d] he hath chosen us in him [e] before the foundation of the world, that we should [f] be holy and without blame before him in love:

5 [g] Having predestinated us unto [h] the adoption of children by Jē'sus Chrīst to himself, [i] according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 [j] To the praise of the glory of his grace, [k] wherein he hath made us accepted in [l] the beloved.

7 [m] In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to [n] the riches of his grace;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 [o] Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure [p] which he hath purposed in himself:

10 That in the dispensation of [q] the fulness of times [r] he might gather together in one [s] all things in Chrīst, both which are in [2] heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:

11 [t] In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to [u] the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

12 [v] That we should be to the praise of his glory, [w] who first [3] trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, [x] ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,

14 [y] Which is the earnest of our inheritance [z] until the redemption of [a] the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jē'sus, and love unto all the saints,

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 That the God of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, the Father of glory, [b] may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation [4] in the knowledge of him:

18 [c] The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, [d] according to the working [5] of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Chrīst, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 [e] Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

22 And [f] hath put all things under his feet, and gave him [g] to be the head over all things to the church,

23 [h] Which is his body, the fulness of him [i] that filleth all in all.

CHAPTER 2.

1 What the Ephesians' state was: 4 God's mercy in their deliverance.

AND [a] you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 [b] Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in [c] the children of disobedience:

3 [d] Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in [e] the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling [1] the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and [f] were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, [g] who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 [h] Even when we were dead in sins, hath [i] quickened us together with Chrīst, ([2] by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Chrīst Jē'sus:

THE NEW HELPS CONSIST OF

The Inclusive Dictionary-Concordance in one alphabet

It contains every needed assistance to the Bible student, including a Dictionary, a Concordance, and a Subject Index of important topics

Over 100 Illustrations in the text, including full-page illustrations

The Dictionary included in this alphabetical arrangement is self-pronouncing. It is not merely an explanation of words. The meaning or derivation of the name is given in every instance. Passages of Scripture are quoted, and an interesting explanation is presented to the reader.

Where it is possible, the exact location of the geographical name has been given, and the modern name if the place is still in existence. The illustrations enable one to visualize the subject, as well as to find the meaning, and the reference to the Scriptures.

The Concordance part is so arranged that there is no difficulty in finding a word, all Concordance words being indented.

White space precedes the lines, thus enabling one to find the right word and the particular reference desired, instantly. Although necessarily condensed in order to make it available for publication with the Bible, it embraces all the salient points of the complete Concordance.

The Charts and Chronological Tables, not usually available in so extended a form in condensed Bible Helps, make the information there contained strikingly visible.

The Maps, printed on coated paper, are distinguished by strong boundary lines and contrasted coloring, not glaring in tone. They have been in use for some time and were verified and authenticated by some of the best known and most exacting Bible scholars.

A New, Practical Course in Bible Reading is also included in this edition of the Bible. This course has the great merit of tending to form in the reader the Bible-reading habit. It is divided into thirty-six lessons. The System of Markings is simple and the story of the books of the Old Testament, and also the life of Christ, add to the interest of either student or general reader.

NOTE the bold-faced type, pronouncing text, center column references with chapter numbers in heavy type—unusual in Bibles, but a great aid to quick reference.

Synopsis at head of chapters—quite full—some Bibles have none.

The figures to the left of Chapter Head indicate the total number of chapters from the beginning of the Bible.

The headlines also are in bold type in keeping with the text.

The name of the book, on outside corner, makes the Bible practically self-indexed.

1104 CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's thankfulness and prayer to God for them: 21 his readiness to glorify Christ.

PAUL and Tī-mō'the-ŭs, the servants of Jē'şus Chrīst, to all the saints in Chrīst Jē'şus which are at Phĭ-lĭp'pī, with the [1] bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'şus Chrīst.

3 [a] I thank my God upon every [2] remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 [b] For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident [3] of this very thing, that he which hath begun [c] a good work in you [3] will perform it until the day of Jē'şus Chrīst:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because [4] I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in [d] my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, [e] ye all are [5] partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jē'şus Chrīst.

9 And this I pray, [f] that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all [6] judgment;

10 That [g] ye may [7] approve things that [8] are excellent; [h] that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Chrīst;

13 So that my bonds [9] in Chrīst are manifest [j] in all [10] the palace, and [11] in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Chrīst even of envy and [k] strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Chrīst of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Chrīst is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation [l] through your prayer, and the supply of [m] the Spirit of Jē'şus Chrīst,

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that [n] in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Chrīst shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER 1.

A. D. 65.

1 Paul's charge to Timothy. 5 Use and end of law. 11 Paul's call.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ [a]by the commandment [b]of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, [c]which is our hope;

2 Unto [d]Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, [e]when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some [f]that they teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now [g]the end of the commandment is charity [h]out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some[1] having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that [i]the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 [j]Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for [k]the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, [l]for that he counted me faithful, [m]putting me into the ministry;

13 [n]Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because [o]I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith [p]and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that [q]Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto [r]the King eternal, immortal, [s]invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, [t]according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is [u]Hymenæus and [v]Alexander; whom I have [w]delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Of prayer and thanks for all. 9 Woman's attire and conduct.

I [1]EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 [a]For kings, and [b]for all that are in [2]authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is [c]good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

4 [d]Who will have all men to be saved, [e]and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, [3]to be testified [f]in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray [g]every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with [4]broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

17 Do not ye yet understand, that [q] whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But [r] those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 [s] For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ [t] Then Jē'şus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tўre and Sī'dŏn.

22 And, behold, a woman of Cā'năan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of Dā'vid; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, [u] I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Ĭs'ra-el.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to [x] dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jē'şus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

S. LUKE, 19. Christ visiteth a publican.

Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jē'sus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jē'sus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

28 Then Pē'ter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Je-

AND Jē'sus entered and passed through Jĕr'i-chō.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zac-chæ'us, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jē'sus, who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jē'sus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zac-chæ'us, make haste, and come down, for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zac-chæ'us stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods, I give to the poor: and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

9 And Jē'sus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of A'bra-ham.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

ST. LUKE, 5.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.
14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Mō'sēş commanded, for a testimony unto them.
15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.
16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.
17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Phär'ī-sēeş and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Gāl'ī-lee, and Jū-dæ'ā, and Jē-rū'sā-lēm: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.
18 ¶ And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.
19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jē'şus.
20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.
21 And the scribes and the Phär'ī-sēeş began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?
22 But when Jē'şus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?
23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?
24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.
25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.
26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.
27 ¶ And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Lē'vī, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.
28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.
29 And Lē'vī made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.
30 But their scribes and Phär'ī-sēeş murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?
31 And Jē'şus answering

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

1152] CHAPTER 1.

1 Blessing for spiritual graces. 13 Exhortation to godliness.

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers [a]scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect [b]according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, [c]through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling [d]of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his [1]abundant mercy [e]hath begotten us again unto a lively hope [f]by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven [2]for you,

5 [g]Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 [h]Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though [i]it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

8 [j]Whom having not seen, ye love; [k]in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 [l]Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner of time [m]the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand [n]the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 [o]Unto whom it was revealed, that [p]not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with [q]the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; [r]which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope [3]to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you [s]at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former

CHAPTER 1.

1 Conquests by Judah. 8 Jerusalem taken. 21 The acts of Benjamin. 29 Nations remaining unconquered.

B. C. 1425.

NOW after the death of Jŏsh'u-a it came to pass, that the children of Ĭs'ra-el [a]asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Cā'năan-ītes first, to fight against them?

2 And the LORD said, [b]Jū'dah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

3 And Jū'dah said unto Sĭm'e-on his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Cā'năan-ītes; and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. So Sĭm'e-on went with him.

4 And Jū'dah went up; and [d]the LORD delivered the Cā'năan-ītes and the Pĕr'ĭz-zītes into their hand: and they slew of them in Bē'zek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Ă-dŏn'ī-bē'zek in Bē'zek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Cā'năan-ītes and the Pĕr'ĭz-zītes.

6 But Ă-dŏn'ī-bē'zek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Ă-dŏn'ī-bē'zek said, Threescore and ten kings, having [1]their thumbs and their great toes cut off, [2]gathered their meat under my table: [e]as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and there he died.

e Lev. 24. 19. Ps. 109. 16.

8 Now the children of Jū'dah had fought against Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

9 And afterward the children of Jū'dah went down to fight against the Cā'năan-ītes, that dwelt in the mountain, and in the south, and in the valley.

10 And Jū'dah went against the Cā'năan-ītes that dwelt in Hē'bron: (now the name of Hē'bron before was Kĭr'jath-ăr'bā:) and they slew Shē'shāi, and Ă-hĭm'ăn, and Tăl'mī.

11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Dē'bīr: and the name of Dē'bīr before was Kĭr'jath-sē'phēr.

12 And Cā'lĕb said, He that smiteth Kĭr'jath-sē'phēr, and taketh it, to him will I give Ăch'sah my daughter to wife.

13 And Ŏth'nĭ-ĕl the son of Kĕn'āz, the younger brother of Cā'lĕb, took it: and he gave him Ăch'sah his daughter to wife.

14 And it came to pass, when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted from off her ass; and Cā'lĕb said unto her, What wouldest thou?

15 Who answered him, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Cā'lĕb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.

16 And the children of the Kē'nīte, Mō'sĕs' father in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Jū'dah into the wilderness of Jū'dah, which lieth in the south of [o]Ā'răd; [p]and they went and dwelt among the people.

17 And Jū'dah went with Sĭm'e-on his brother, and they slew the Cā'năan-ītes that inhabited Zē'phath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called [q]Hôr'mah.

18 Also Jū'dah took [r]Gā'za with the coast thereof, and Ăs'ke-lŏn with the coast thereof, and Ēk'rŏn with the coast thereof.

19 And [s]the LORD was with Jū'dah; and [t]he drove out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had [t]chariots of iron.

20 [u]And they gave Hē'bron unto Cā'leb, as Mō'sĕs said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Ā'năk.

21 [v]And the children of Bĕn'ja-min did not drive out the Jĕb'u-sītes that inhabited Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm; but the Jĕb'u-sītes dwell with the children of Bĕn'ja-min in Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm unto this day.

22 ¶ And the house of Jō'sĕph, they also went up against Bĕth'-el: and the LORD was with them.

23 And the house of Jō'sĕph [w]sent to descry Bĕth'-el. (Now the name of the city before was [x]Lŭz.)

24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray

THE INCLUSIVE

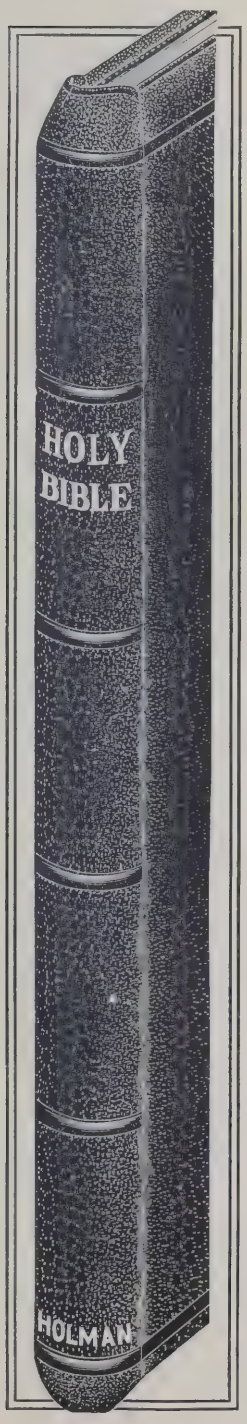
DICTIONARY–CONCORDANCE

Copyright, 1925, by A. J. Holman Company and incorporated in the new Boldblack Type Teachers' Bibles
See description, prices, etc., on preceding pages, 13–15.

Combining in a single alphabetical arrangement a pronouncing dictionary of the Bible; a Concordance to the Scriptures; a subject index to the Bible; tables of chronology and of weights and measures, etc., together with a complete series of maps showing the Bible countries from the earliest times to the date of the destruction of Jerusalem. Over 100 illustrations including full page illustrations.



EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Inclusive Dictionary-Concordance contains a selection and combination of the Holman Helps to the Study of the Bible, known to so many readers of the Holman Bibles, thoroughly revised so as to bring the material in line with the most recent knowledge. For the greater convenience of the reader and student, the information given in the various alphabetical lists of the Holman Helps has been rearranged in a single alphabetical order, so that any subject about which information is desired may be instantly found in its proper alphabetical place without the necessity of referring to an Index or of search in a Table of Contents.

But the Dictionary-Concordance, though in alphabetic form, is more than a word-book. The descriptions of Oriental persons, places, and things which render a Bible Dictionary rather of the type of an Encyclopædia are to be found here, each in the natural place according to the alphabet; and wherever it is of value to the reader cross-references are given to other places in the Dictionary-Concordance. For instance, the tables of Weights and Measures, of the Jewish Calendar, of Jewish and Roman Money, etc., are found as tables in their natural places. But each commonly used name of a weight, a month, or a coin is also found under its own name in the place in the alphabetical order in which it belongs.

9 For the people were numbered, and, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jā′besh-gĭl′e-ăd there.
10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jā′besh-gĭl′e-ăd with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.
11 And this is the thing that ye shall do, Ye shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that hath lain by man.
12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jā′besh-gĭl′e-ăd four hundred young virgins, that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the camp to Shī′lōh, which is in the land of Cā′năan.
13 And the whole congregation sent some to speak to the children of Bĕn′ja-min that were in the rock Rĭm′mŏn, and to call peaceably unto them.
14 And Bĕn′ja-min came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jā′besh-gĭl′e-ăd: and yet so they sufficed them not.
15 And the people repented them for Bĕn′ja-min, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Ĭs′ra-el.
16 ¶ Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Bĕn′ja-min?
17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Bĕn′ja-min, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Ĭs′ra-el.
18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the children of Ĭs′ra-el have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Bĕn′ja-min.
19 Then they said, Behold, there a feast of the LORD in Shī′lōh yearly in a place which is on the north side of Bĕth′-el, on the east side of the highway that goeth up from Bĕth′-el to Shĕ′chem, and on the south of Lĕ-bō′nah.
20 Therefore they commanded the children of Bĕn′ja-min, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards;
21 And see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shī′lōh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shī′lōh, and go to the land of Bĕn′ja-min.
22 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, Be favourable unto them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that ye should be guilty.
23 And the children of Bĕn′ja-min did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them.
24 And the children of Ĭs′ra-el departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.
25 In those days there was no king in Ĭs′ra-el: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

THE BOOK OF RUTH.

233 CHAPTER 1.

1 Elimelech, driven by famine into Moab, dieth there. 6 Naomi returning home, Ruth accompanieth her.

NOW it came to pass in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bĕth′-lĕ-hĕm-jū′dah went to sojourn in the country of Mō′ab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.
2 And the name of the man was Ē-lĭm′ĕ-lech, and the name of his wife Nă-ō′mī, and the name of his two sons Măh′lon and Chĭl′ĭ-on, Ĕph′răth-ītes of Bĕth′-lĕ-hĕm-jū-dah. And they came into the country of Mō′ab, and continued there.
